OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

The election which will determine whether Tropico shall remain Tropico or become a part of Glendale, is so near that it behooves voters to think seriously about this matter and make up their minds quietly and soberly whether they wish to maintain their separate municipality, or lose their identity in another city in which the business center is far from Tropico.

The ultimate destiny of San Fernando Road as a business thoroughfare and factory center district is plainly written, though the business stagnation of the past few years has delayed its development. The Box Factory after a long term of years in temporary buildings is now giving evidence of faith in its location by spending $20,000 or more for a concrete building covering two blocks.

Within the past few weeks the old piano factory has been leased by a Company which will manufacture film materials and chemicals used by moving picture producers. Present signs point to a revival in Tropico which could probably be augmented by united local effort. Will this possible prosperity be encouraged or retarded by union with Glendale?

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

ENSIGN ALLEN DAVENPORT

Friends of Allen Davenport, who joined the Naval Coast Defense, will be glad to learn that he successfully passed his examinations for an officer's commission at Mare Island, whither he was sent October 7th, and has now received his commission as Ensign. In a recent letter to his sister he says:

"I am now in my stateroom on the receiving ship at the Island and its number is 13. I have by actual count twenty drawers, shelves with doors etc., and can only fill about four or five. I have two electric lights and a writing desk, a bowl and washstand and one porthole, a mirror and one steam register. I have a Stanford friend across the passageway who is sitting at his desk studying and looking queer with an officer's cap on his head, and his S. sweater around him. A Philippine boy makes up my bed, sweeps out and shines my shoes. I eat at the wardroom mess and we have three boys to wait on us. I never ate better in my life. It is as good as the Pullman and only costs me 85 cents a day. Let me tell you it is no joke being an officer. I can come and go as I please but must be careful not to break rules as we are examples to the men and they watch us. We have to return all the salutes and it keeps us busy when walking around, but I like to be an officer. We are not supposed to carry bundles or suit cases on board, so leave them on the landing float and send boys after them. It seems funny for the Captain's wife to go over to Vallejo shopping and carry her bundles until she comes alongside, then leave them and have a boy go over and bring them on board, but it is a custom and we try to observe it. I had charge of about thirty-five men this morning excavating for a gym. Some job, nothing to do but look wise."

Doing Her Bit

Miss Jean Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Anderson of Gardena avenue, writes from Detroit where she is attending school that she is doing her patriotic bit there. She has bought a Liberty Bond, is helping to support a French baby and is knitting a sweater and muffler for the Red Cross.

TWIN CITY LODGE ENTERTAINS

On Thursday evening, Oct. 25th Twin City Lodge No. 331, K of P., held the first of the get-together meeting which they propose to hold every month during the winter. The public was invited and responded to the number of 250 or more. The programme was of a varied nature and by local talent. After a brief address of welcome by Bro. Bert Eachus, Chancellor Commander, the following numbers were presented:

Piano Solo, Miss Helen Hartwig.

Interpretive Dance, "Cupid and the Butterfly", Misses Mirna Kahler and Dorothy Dutton.

Reading, Miss Mulligan.

Dance, Miss Harriet Cook.

Violin Solo, Master Malverne Lawyer, Accompanist, Miss Leone Hibbert.

Monologue, Mr. Joe V. Griffin.

Dance, "La Coquette" Miss Dorothy Dutton.

Tableau, "The Pythian Lesson of Friendship.", Members of Twin City Lodge.

At the close of the entertainment dancing was enjoyed until 11:30. Light refreshments of Sweet Cider and Cookies were served during dancing. As this monthly meeting fell so near to Hallow'een it was made to represent somewhat that old-time festival. The hall was decorated with cornstalks and Pumpkins and there was the tent and fire among the trees and the Old Witch to read the lines of the hand. This character was represented by Mrs. Wayne Frank in a manner that places her in the line of professional impersonators and some of the older persons present said that she told them many things that were just too good for anything.

The committee feel encouraged at their first effort and hope to make their future get-together meetings fully as enjoyable as the October meeting.

The November number will be merged with the Bazaar of La Halla Temple, P. S., on December 16th.

An ostrich feather, if held upright, will be seen to be perfectly equal on both sides, the stem dividing it exactly in the center. In other feathers the stems are found to be more or less on one side.

BEAUTIFUL HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A beautiful Hallowe'en Party was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Morris Cook of Brand Boulevard as a surprise for her little daughter Doris and in celebration of her eighth birthday.

Every accessory that a loving mother could devise to make it perfect in all its apointments was provided. While the decorations and lanterns bore the hallowe'en symbols, they were beautiful and the scene when the lights were turned on was exceedingly pretty.

Favors were numerous and of all sorts. Especially noticeable were those provided for the cotillion which was an outstanding number of the dance program. The children also played the "Donkey Game" and "Marching to Jerusalem" and were entertained by a wonderful witch who is sometimes known as Miss Scott. In the course of the evening her goblin brother, Mr. Hokus-Pokus O'Snore, who had previously announced his coming in a letter to Doris, arrived and made more merriment, presenting balloons to all the children who were good.

At a signal a march was played upon the piano accompanied by flute and drum and the wondering children were marshalled to a banquet room in the yard where a beautiful table was spread centered by a large pumpkin in which were more pretty favors, with a very realistic witch on a broomstick suspended above it.

The guests who enjoyed this pretty party were: Dorothy Dutton, Merna Kahler, Glen and Shirley Hitchcock, Florence Rattray, Alynn Yeakle, Kenneth Smith, Bobbie Turnbull, Merle Kahler, Billy Justema, Glen Roberts, Robert and Lowrence Lehman.

SEA BEEF

That porpoises and dolphins, no less than whales, are good food for mankind has been reported to the Committee on Resources and Food Supply of the State Council of Defense by the College of Agriculture of the University of California.

Like whales, cattle, or sheep, the porpoises and dolphins are mammals and their flesh is meat and not fish. In texture and appearance the flesh of porpoises and dolphins resembles beef, although the color is darker red. There is no reason why this meat should not be placed on the market not only fresh, but also corned and canned.

As to whale meat, the probable development of the future is that the tenderer cuts will be sold for table use and served in all the various ways in which beef is used, while the less tender portions of the whale promise to be of much commercial and practical value if dried and ground and sold as a meat food to give chickens the much needed protein element in their diet.

Patriotism at the Box Factory

Three beautiful new flags adorn the walls at the Box Factory, purchased with funds subscribed by the employes. They are of the regulation army size and eloquently testify to the patriotism of the workers. The factory has contributed its quota to the army, and some of the most efficient workers in the evening circle of the Red Cross Auxiliary are busy by day in the factory. There are no slackers at the box factory. John Humphrey, one of its workers, a newly wed, has been called for examination and may be torn from his bride and sent to a cantonment but if accepted by Uncle Sam, it is safe to say he will go cheerfully to do his bit.

Red Cross Auxiliary Notes

Mrs. Tiffany, secretary of the Red Cross Auxiliary, reports that the returns from the Exchange Food Sale at the Tropico Grocerteria last Saturday amounted to $10.50.

The next sale will be held November 17th somewhere on the San Fernando Road in the business district. The work has now been organized and the territory divided into four districts. A sale will be held in one of these districts each month and contributions solicited from that district.

Under this plan members of a district will be called upon for contributions only three times a year. The chairman of the different districts will be announced later.

The executive committee of the Auxiliary states that it wants for the small Christmas packages it is planning to send the boys who have gone to camps from Tropico: hard candies, figs, nuts and raisins. Small, compact games may also be included if enough of the right sort are provided.

The local Auxiliary has not been asked to furnish any Christmas boxes to be sent to France as the quota allotted to the Los Angeles chapter has already been provided and will soon go forward.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Ivanhoe Bridge

A variation in the usual program of meetings of the Council was furnished by the visit of Messrs. Millard, Olsen and Cleveland, finance committee of the Los Angeles City Council who came out to interview the trustees relative to an appropriation for the Ivanhoe bridge, towards which, these gentlemen declared, the city would appropriate only $10,000. The County Supervisors have appropriated $5,000 for the work, but the bridge will cost more than the original estimate of $15,000 on acount of the high cost of materials. Trustee Veselich went over the situation thoroughly explaining that Tropico has already spent about $2000 in securing rights of way, moving the railway tower and other necessary expenditures in connection with the boulevard and is not in a position financially to assume any heavy indebtedness in connection with the construction of the Ivanhoe bridge. A further conference at the meeting of the Glendale City Council tonight, at which it is expected the Burbank trustees will also be present, is expected to result in some co-operative action which wall insure the funds necessary to build the bridge, in which event, preliminary work will be started at once.

Red Cross Request

The only communication presented by the Clerk was from the Tropico Red Cross Auxiliary thanking the trustees for the use of the council chamber for its work and asking for the use of the hall December 13th for a bazaar. On motion of Trustee Seal the request was granted.

Electric Light Contract

President Peters reported that the Southern California Edison Company is preparing a contract for the extension for one year of the contract originally entered into between the city and the Pacific Light and Power Company, covering rates and an option to purchase, and the matter went over for one week when it is expected the contracts will be in the hands of the City Clerk for execution or rejection.

Danger Lights

Marshal Gould requested that an arrangement be made with the Southern California Edison Company, if possible, to connect with the service system so, they would burn all night, the three red lights which it is proposed to install at San Fernando and Tropico, Central and Tropico, and at the S. turn on San Fernando, as danger signals. On motion of Henry the matter was referred to the City Clerk to ascertain cost and report.

Yuletide Appropriation

President Peters stated that a very discouraging report had been presented by his appointee on the Los Angeles Yuletide Committee which is raising funds to send Christmas boxes to the soldiers; that she had not been able to secure any subscriptions. For the credit of Tropico, President Peters suggested that the Council make an appropriation and on motion of Trustee Veselich the Board voted to appropriate $25 from the general fund to be transmitted through Mrs. Turck to the Los Angeles Yuletide Committee.

Watering School Grounds

President Peters reported a request from teachers in the Acacia School that the city fire department thoroughly irrigate the playground, and the matter was referred to Fire Chief Fairfield with power to act.

Junk

President Peters also stated that a bid had been made on a number of damaged chairs belonging to the city and stored in its stable. On motion of Henry Street Superintendent Ripley was instructed to dispose of them for the best offer he could get and turn the proceeds over to the city treasurer.

Demands

The following demands were then read by the City Clerk and ordered paid: Hunter, for plumbing $2.00; Engineer Wattles, expense $2.; Telephone extension, $2.10.

The Board then adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Camp

Saturday forenoon, October 20th, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davenport left Tropico in their automobile for a trip to the Imperial Valley country, with the intention of camping by the way. Their first run was to Cabazon, seven miles from Banning, where they camped the first night. It was Mrs. Davenport's initial experience in camping and according to her account of the trip, she enjoyed it. From there they drove to the Coachella Valley, spending the second night beside the Salton Sea. Their third objective where they spent another night was the hot springs at Lake Elsinore.

The regular all-day meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid will be held next week, November 8th, at the church as usual.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church is planning a Utility Sale and a Chicken Pie Supper for Friday eve., December 7th. Everybody who is fond of good things to eat, and that means all of Tropico, should keep the date in mind.

It will also be "Sunday School Sunday" the state over.

These include the Food Conservation Pledge, the movement to provide every soldier with a Bible, and the Armenian Drive, set for November 4th to November 10th. Several months ago a preliminary committee to work for Armenia, consisting of Doctors Duncan and Lucas was appointed. Last week Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davenport, Mrs. Gaither and her guest, Mrs. Holmes of Sacramento, drove to San Pedro where among other sights of interest they inspected the Bethel Home for Sailors, which is conducted in an old stranded boat by Frank Burr, a cousin of Mrs. Gaither. He is doing a great work there in furnishing a decent resort where sailors can rest and enjoy themselves without going to the saloons. Judge Wilbur and others of Los Angeles are interested in the enterprise. The Davenport party spent about two hours there and were shown all through the departments of the mission.

POST AND CORPS DINNER

About one hundred veterans and members of the W. R. C. were entertained at the Post and Corps dinner last Friday.

The program included music and informal talks about the war, also an original poem written by the sister of Comrade R. D. Goss and dedicated to the author's son, who is captain in an Illinois company. It was entitled "After the Kaiser" and was sung to the tune of "Marching Thru Georgia", the veterans coming in strong on the chorus and finally giving three cheers and a tiger for the boys who are now "Going after the Kaiser", the ladies of the corps joining them with cheers and waving handkerchiefs.

She has been guest of honor at several very pretty affairs, one of which was given Saturday afternoon by her cousin, Miss Lucile Barnes, at the Barnes home on Walnut street, where Miss Peckham was showered with linen. Hallow-'een furnished the motif for decorations and refreshments, which were of the good old-fashioned sort, little individual pumpkin pies, doughnuts, cider, apples etc.

Twelve girls spent the afternoon happily and entertained themselves with a variety of games in which the special guest secured more than one prize.

The guest list included: Mesdames Carroll Hare, George Monberg, John Wilcox, John Smalley, Misses Lefa Siple, Lilian Ellias, Gladys Bronson, Helen McMullin, Daphne Burlingham and Pearl Peckham.

DEATH OF MISS NEMETT

Death came suddenly one morning last week into a home on Gardena avenue and claimed Miss Elsie Nemett, daughter of Mrs. Lina Nemett and sister of Mrs. R. J. Sherman, who have been living in the Wayland Brown house for several months, and where they hoped the pleasant environment and favorable climate would restore the health of Miss Nemett. But it was not to be,and in spite of visible improvement, she knew the call was coming and was ready for it.

She had been spending some time at light work in the garden, of which she was very fond, and remarked that she was tired and would lie down. Before she could stretch herself upon her bed, her heart ceased to beat and she fell across it inanimate.

She was a woman of wonderful character and ability and had led a busy and very unselfish life of service which wore her out before her time. In the brief span allotted her, she lived, in the sense of accomplishment, as long as most people who attain four score and ten years. She was a fine stenographer and expert typewriter, and was possessed of fine mentality and education. For a number of years she held a very responsible position as secretary to the non resident judges of the United States Court of Appeals at Chicago. On account of failing health she resigned it about two years ago and then undertook to fit herself for social settlement work, in which she was greatly interested, but discovered she would not be physically equal to it, and so joined her mother and sister in California.

Funeral services which were held Saturday afternoon, were very simple, a brief prayer at the home on Gardena avenue by Dr. B. C. Cory, and then a journey to Forest Lawn Cemetery where the service was conducted in the new chapel. Doctor Lucas sang two numbers, Mrs. Fry furnishing the organ accompaniment. Dr. Cory read the scriptures and made a short talk.

Besides the mother and sister referred to, Miss Nemett is survived by two sisters, Mrs. H. R. Gage of Los Angeles and Mrs. Charles A. Bayer of Mount Vernon N. Y. These relatives have asked the Sentinel to express their thanks to neighbors and friends who manifested their sympathy by kind attentions and by gifts of flowers from their gardens.

Death of Andrew R. Ballentyne

Tuesday morning Andrew R. Ballentyne, who has been ill for several months was released from suffering and entered into rest. He had rounded out three score and ten and was ready for a beter world.

At Smith's Falls, Canada, April 13, 1844, he was born. In 1867 he migrated to the United States and there in 1870, married Charlotte Miller who survives him. Six children were born to them all of whom are living, viz. George M., Frank P., Mrs. C. R. Magee, Mrs. O. A. Young of Laurel, Mont., Mrs. J. E. Chaffee of Ashville, N. C., and Bryon J. Ballentyne of Richmond Cal. Two sisters and three brothers of the deceased also mourn his loss.

Andrew Ballentyne was a hard-working, God fearing man, faithful and loyal to his church and his community. For many years he was an Elder in the Presbyterian Church and in all respects he was an exemplary citizen and much respected.

Funeral services are to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Ballentyne home, 318 North Glendale, conducted by Rev. O. P. Rider. Interment will be made in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

MYSTERY IN TROPICO

Tropico has a mystery. There is a woman in it, there is an aged man and two others. An untenanted house figures in the tale which has been wafted down from Boynton street where residents have been speculating over mysterious footprints which they find mornings under their windows and which cannot be accounted for. Telephones and telephone wires are also involved in the story. Maybe it is a German plot with wireless connections, perhaps it is another Clan na Gael conspiracy. Possibly it is a group of plain, sneak thieves. It is a good chance for the valiant Billy to achieve greatness anyway and win admiration of Boynton street, but none of the residents there appear to have considered appealing to him.

Armenia's Need

The calls from Armenia for money to provide the supplies absolutely necessary to keep thousands from dying for lack of food, are most urgent. J. B. Jackson, recently American Consul at Aleppo, Syria, says:

"The urgency of the demands are far beyond estimation. The 120,000 or so dependent persons in Aleppo and vicinity have no other resource for bread, and once the relief stops these people will disappear from the face of the earth."

Mr. Tarler, First Secretary of the American Embassy at Constantinople, says:

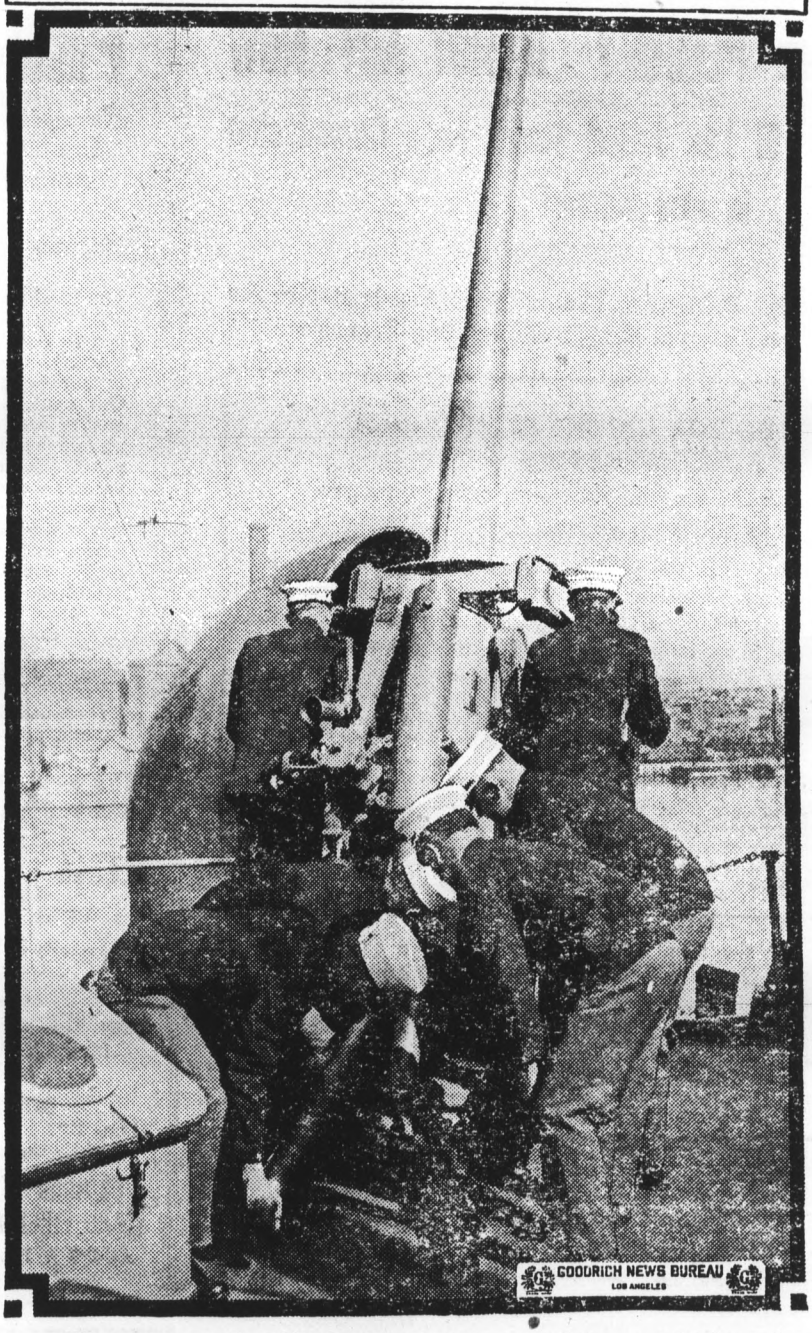
"The distress among the stricken people is far beyond any power of words to describe. The number of children who are in daily need runs into tens of thousands.

BURBANK ATTRACTIONS

What will be the sensation of vaudeville this week is provided Burbank patrons by Manager I. N. Cohen, in the famous Chinese Fan Tan Comedy Trio who apear at the head of a great new vaudeville bill. These three celestials, graduates from the Musical University of Canton, China, have been a riot back East, and their apearance at the Burbank is the first in California. Studying music for five years in their native schools, they present a selection of Chinese operatic and American ragtime airs, and their instrumental abilities are said to be remarkable. One of the trio is possessed of a remarkable baritone voice, and this aggregation, undoubtedly the finest of its kind in vaudeville, has an abundance of rich material.

Grace Cunard, a big favorite with picture fans, makes her appearance in "Society's Driftwood" a remarkable portrayal of the sins and destruction of the exessive rich and money-mad crowds.

U. S. MARINES SERVING ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUN



The accompanying illustration depicts one of the new high angle "sky" guns, on the superstructure of a great dreadnaught. The weapon is being directed against an imaginary hostile airship by its crew of United States Marines. Already some of these crews have made excellent practice records with the gun.

It is safe to predict that more than one of our fine Southern California boys will help make still better scores. The young men who have enlisted in the Marine Corps from this section have given every indication of being record breakers in whatever duty they may be assigned.

The Marines serve all guns, from the heaviest to the lightest. A few months may probably see them operating machine guns, trench mortars and bomb throwers. They may be hurling hand grenades for which they are being trained now. Besides this, every Marine is an expert with his pistol and bayonet.

THE SON OF HIS FATHER

Charles Ray comes to Clune's Auditorium for the week in a new story with a new plot and a lot of new experiences. The picture is entitled "The Son of His Father" and is one of the brightest, laughable, most enjoyable pictures of the year.

Regular picture fans recognize Charles Ray as the "wonder boy" of Thomas Ince, under whose supervision he has appeared for the past three years. His unusual ability to portray clever young man parts has never been so remarkably apparent as in his new picture which he makes decidedly interesting all through with his cleverness, his agility and his ability to stand a lot of hard knocks when it comes to fist fighting. Ray seems to glory in scenes where he has to fight some fellow or bunch of them.

It is one of the brightest and best pictures of the year.

A Hint For Young Romeos.

If the hero has no bad habits he should acquire some or at least lead her to believe he has one or two. Courtship isn't complete unless the heroine can beg him to quit something that is destroying his sweet health or, worse still, something that makes him almost a bold, bad man. She used to beg and beg us to quit gambling, and a few years after the wedding she was cruel enough to tell us that she knew all the time that we were not a gambler. She was just humoring us.—Claude Callan in Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Lighthouses.

The Greeks attributed the first lighthouses to Hercules, and he was considered the protector of voyages. It is claimed by some that Homer refers to lighthouses in the nineteenth book of the "Iliad." Vergil mentions a light on a temple to Apollo which, visible far out at sea, warned and guided mariners.

Our National Anthem

The Star Spangled Banner

O, say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed, at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thru the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thru the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free,
And the home of the brave.

On the shore dimly seen thru the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;
'Tis the star spangled banner, oh! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free,
And the home of the brave.

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home, and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heaven rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation;
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust,"
And the star spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free,
And the home of the brave.
